Sisters of St. Joseph, Toronto

CHILDREN'S POTTERY CLASS ASSISTANT

Volunteer Position Description

At Studio on the Hill, Fontbonne Ministries, Sister Helen Kluge offers a wide range of people the chance to work with clay in a safe, non-stressful environment. All are welcome: men, women and children of all ages as well as people with disabilities, including those who are visually impaired. It is located at 967 O'Connor Drive (O'Connor, north of St. Clair).

We are currently in need of assistants for the Wednesday afternoon children's pottery class. This would be an excellent position for high school or college students who want to share their love of pottery with enthusiastic children. This would also be an opportunity for high school students to fulfill their 40 hours of volunteer work.

Responsibilities:

- To assist Sr. Helen with set up and clean-up of the studio space for the class as well as helping the children during the class, and other duties as directed.

Requirements:

- An interest in pottery; good communication skills, able to follow directions, an ability to encourage children, reliability

Time frame:

Wednesday afternoons, 1 – 4 p.m., from July 4 – August 22, 2007
